Terms and Conditions of Participation
International Youth Camp of the German Triathlon Youth

Activities and programs for children and young people provide valuable opportunities for personal development, enabling participants to expand their skills and gain meaningful experiences. In doing so, they may encounter unfamiliar, new, and, in individual cases, potentially risky situations. Despite the utmost care exercised by the supervisors, it can never be completely ruled out that injuries and/or other damages may occur.

In planning and organizing the above-mentioned event, the German Triathlon Youth (DTJ) (hereinafter referred to as the "DTJ") enters into financial commitments for accommodation, half-board catering, program costs, admission fees, public transport tickets, and similar expenses.

Registration

Registration is completed online and only becomes binding upon payment of the participation fee and subsequent confirmation of participation by the DTJ. For minors, the consent of a parent or legal guardian is required. The participation fee must be paid within 14 days of receipt of the invoice. If payment is not received, the place may be allocated to another participant.

Participants are required to sign the Code of Conduct. The signed document must be submitted together with the registration via email to jugend@triathlondeutschland.de.

Cancellation by Participants

Cancellation of registration must be made in writing. Up to the registration deadline, cancellation is free of charge. After the registration deadline, an administrative and cancellation fee of €30 will be charged. In addition, any costs already incurred and not refundable by third parties (e.g., admission tickets, group tickets, or program costs) will be charged.

In the event of cancellation within 28 days prior to the start of the event, accommodation and catering costs will also be charged to the extent that these costs are incurred by the organizer and can no longer be cancelled free of charge.

If a suitable replacement participant is nominated, only any actual rebooking or amendment costs incurred will be charged.

In the event of non-attendance or early departure, no refund will be granted.
